

Library

Our main location is on the 2nd floor of the Mitchell Memorial Library. It offers face-to-face and online sessions during the day and only face-to-face sessions in the evening.

Online

Our online location offers virtual sessions in the evening. Writers should access their virtual appointments by using our online platform at msstate.mywconline.com.

Templeton

Our Templeton location is exclusively for student-athletes and offers face-to-face and online sessions during the day and the evening.

Our Mission

The Mississippi State University Writing Center dedicates itself to helping all MSU students develop as writers and critical thinkers. We do that by being available in person and online to students who want to think about, talk about, and work on their writing and the ideas that they want that writing to communicate.

Schedule an Appointment

Step 1

In a web browser, visit msstate.mywconline.com and create an account using your @msstate.edu email address.

Step 2

Log into your account and select the scheduler for the location you want to visit.

Step 3

Select the time you want to meet and complete the form to schedule your appointment.

After making your appointment, use the online scheduler at msstate.mywconline.com to:

- Log into your account and view availability
- Update your account
- Access your appointment details
- Edit or cancel an existing appointment
- Attend a scheduled virtual appointment
- View your client report form
- Create another appointment

On the day of your appointment, your client report will be emailed to you by midnight; for required appointments, this email will serve as a receipt that you can send to your professor.
